

BLANDFORD

Whereas all Undergraduates, and others, who are or shall be, in all their matters of Bargains, Sales, Leases, Conveyances, and other things, relating to the said University, and the said Town of Blandford, are to be bound, as they are, by the Statute in that behalf made, to the effect that no person, who is or shall be, a Tutor, or Governor, shall receive or take any money, or value, exceeding Five Shillings in Value, without the consent of the said Tutor, and Governor, and that notwithstanding, they have of late pretended to Trust, and Deal with Young Men, and others, to the utter dishonour of many of them, and to the great prejudice of the said University. These are straightly commanded, that all manner of Persons, as Attorneys, Book-sellers, and others, who are or shall be, of what Quality, Trade, or Condition, shall from the day of the Date hereof, they do not buy, sell, or bargain with any Undergraduate, or Minor, whatsoever, that shall be or shall be, of the said University, or Hall, within the University, for any money, or value, exceeding Five Shillings, without the consent of the said Tutor, or Governor, and that they do not, under the pain of being proceeded against (by Disfranchisement, or otherwise) for assuming to the Quality of the Person, who is or shall be, of the said University, or Hall, as a Tutor, or Governor, or as a Member of the Peace, and Good Government of the said Place.

And whereas, the said Statute, and Statutes, doth require, and command, all such as have trusted, or bargained, or sold, or otherwise, without the knowledge of their respective Tutors, or Governors, for any money, or value, exceeding Five Shillings, should, that they bring in, and pay, to the said Tutor, or Governor, concerned, or, before the Twentieth day of January, next, the sum of money, under the Pain and Penalties therein expressed, upon all such Bargains, or deals, or refuse.

Witness the Seal of the Office of the Chancellorship of the University, the Twenty Sixth Day of January, in the Year of our
